Subject: Upcoming Eid-ul-Fitr Holiday

To Whom It May Concern:

During the next week an important Islamic celebration will be taking place, observed by over a billion Muslims around the world. This celebration is called Eid-ul-Fitr, "The Celebration of Breaking Fast." It is one of the most important annual Islamic holidays and marks the completion of the month of Ramadan.

Eid-ul-Fitr is expected to fall on either Tuesday August 30 or Wednesday August 31, 2011 this year, depending on the sighting of the new moon. As it is with holidays in other faiths, this is a time of prayer, charity, celebration, family get-togethers and gift giving.

Please excuse this student from his/her daily classes as he/she plans to celebrate this joyous occasion. If there is a test scheduled that day, the student is willing to take it before or after that date. In addition, the student can submit assignments earlier or later in the week.

If you have any concerns or questions please feel free to contact the Imam at the Islamic Association of Mid Cities at 817-788-1551 or imam@colleyvillemasjid.org

Thank you.
